

1. DNS will strengthen over time.

2. Domain Name Market will continue to expand

3. ICANN community will shape the next round of new gTLDs

4. The Transition would not have happened if ICANN had not evolved its multistakeholder model of governance.

5. Accountability and Governance go hand in hand at ICANN

6. Post-transition, the Trust between the Board and the community has improved and will continue to do so

7. ICANN has a remit to work for stakeholders around the world

8: Multistakeholder Networks are Effective Models of Governance

So what's next for ICANN?
